THE SOUTH-CAROLINA AND COUNTRY GAZETTE; JOURNAL.

[NUM. 933]

Containing the freſheſt Advices, both Foreign and Domeſtic.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1772.

Charles-Town, July 14, 1772.

THE Subſcriber is much obliged to his planting Friends, who, by landing their Crops at his Wharf for three Years paſt, have thereby introduced it to Buſineſs.---He acted as Factor during that Time, purely to prevent his Friends being Sufferers by their intended Kindneſs to him, as it was very induſtriouſly inſinuated, that Rice would not ſell at his Wharf: But as he is now well convinced, and flatters himſelf all his Friends are fully ſo too, that their Crops landed in large or ſmall Parcels, will ſell altogether as well at his Wharf, as at any other in Charles-Town; and that any Gentlemen, principally concerned in the Factorage Way, will now have no Objection to receive and ſell Rice or Indico landed thereat: He therefore chooſes to decline that Buſineſs, finding it more than he is able to go through. He hopes his good Friends will ſtill land their Crops at his Wharf, where they may depend he ſhall take Care HIMSELF that their Boats have all poſſible Diſpatch.

As to the Safety and Conveniency of his Docks and Stores, he is ſure there are none preferable to them in Town in thoſe Reſpects, and few (if any) Barns in the Country are cooler and more ſecure from Fire; and 'tis almoſt impoſſible for a Barrel of Rice to be loſt or ſtolen in Landing or Shipping at his Wharf. Such Gentlemen as uſe his Wharf conſtantly, may depend on never wanting Storage whenever they do not like the going Price:---No prudent Planter but muſt be convinced, that this is a Matter of the utmoſt Conſequence to him, as many, for theſe three Years paſt, have had their Crops (when landed in Town) diſpoſed of very much againſt their own Inclinations and Judgments, merely for Want of Storage; and this he is ſure has been the Caſe, particularly this Year ſeveral Times, notwithſtanding the Shortneſs of the Crop.

Meſſrs. GIBBES & HORT,

Who have had long Experience in the FACTORAGE BUSINESS in all its Branches, and confine themſelves to that only, have taken the Charge of his Scales, and will tranſact their Buſineſs on his Wharf.---To theſe Gentlemen he begs Leave to recommend ſuch of his Friends who are not otherwiſe engaged.

Chriſtopher Gadſden.

N. B. Any Gentlemen in Trade may depend on not wanting STORAGE for ſuch Parcels of Rice as they purchaſe at his Wharf.

GIBBES & HORT,

ACQUAINT THEIR FRIENDS,

THAT they continue the FACTORAGE BUSINESS in all its Branches, (on the uſual Terms) and for the Conveniency of good Storage, will tranſact it on Captain GADSDEN'S Wharf, where they deſire thoſe of their Friends that it may be agreeable to, will Order ſuch Goods as they ſhall direct to their Care, being convinced that they will ſell as well there as at any other Place in Charles-Town. Conſtant Attendance will alſo be given at their other COMPTING-HOUSE on the Bay.---Their Friends will be ſupplied with proper Boats, agreeable to their Orders; and they hope to merit a Continuance of their Favors, by a ſteady Attention to their Employers Intereſt, eſpecially as they are determined to confine themſelves to the FACTORAGE BUSINESS only; and they aſſure their Friends that they are not in any wiſe intereſted in Captain GADSDEN'S Stores, ſo that whenever they ſhall think it prudent to Store for a better Market, it muſt be ſolely with a View to their Friends Intereſt.

N. B. Wanted to attend on ſaid WHARF, a Perſon well qualified and recommended.

Charles-Town, October 24, 1771.

pretended to take up arms.

Extract of a second letter from the Baron Guldenstadt, Member of the Academy at Peterſburg, and one of the Learned Men whom the Empreſs has ſent through the provinces ſituated at the extremities of her Empire, to [illegible] ted in Georgia.

Carduel, near the river Kur, [illegible] e capital of Georgia, is ſitu- [illegible] I intend paſſing the winter [illegible] ſhort duration. All is ſtill in full ver- [illegible] of the trees are but beginning to fade, and [illegible] me they will throw out freſh verdure towards the end of the year. The Georgians are ſo timid, that they dread not only the dangers of war and navigation, but even the moſt common maladies to which mankind are incident: For this reaſon they have the greateſt veneration for phyſicians; and it is well for them their number is very few, as they are extremely ignorant. Happy for me I had ſome knowledge in an art, in the profeſſors of which they place ſo great confidence, and had many opportunities to exerciſe it, in return for which, as I refuſed all pecuniary offers, they made me ample recompence in procuring proviſions for my train, which conſiſts of thirty-two perſons. They offered me, beſides, for each cure which I accompliſh, a fine horſe and a pretty ſlave; I generally accepted the horſe, as he might aſſiſt in forwarding my tour, but refuſed the ſlave, as ſhe would probably only ſerve to retard it."

JULY 9. A correſpondent informs us, that the affairs of the continent become every day more and more alarming. The ſtratagems made uſe of by the Pruſſian monarch, to accumulate an additional territory to his dominions, it is ſuppoſed, will occaſion a vaſt change in the ſyſtem of Europe. The ſecrecy with which the plan has been conducted, the martial genious of the Emperor, and the diſpoſition of ſeveral of the German Potentates, it is feared, will in the end, create a commotion in which great Britain muſt, however well diſpoſed for peace, interfere, in order to prevent the execution of a plan deſtructive to the tranquillity of Europe.

Every additional account we hear of the Emperor, contributes to heighten him in the eſteem of the world; he is ſhrewd, ſenſible, penetrating, and extremely quick of apprehenſion; he has a turn for politicks, much application, but the bent of his genious is of the military kind. Under ſuch a tutor as the King of Pruſſia, to what a pitch of greatneſs may he not arrive! Had he not been great already, that Monarch would never have honoured him with his friendſhip.

JULY 10. Letters from Berlin mention, that the King ordered a detachment of eight thouſand men, with ten pieces of cannon, to march immediately into Poland, which order was put in execution on the 20th of laſt month.

The Lords of the Admiralty have appointed Captain Scott to the command of his Majeſty's ſhip Alarm, of thirty-two guns, at Portſmouth, in the room of Captain Jervis.

It is aſſerted, the amount of Mr. Fordyce's debts, under his own private commiſſion, and the debts under the partnerſhip, amount together to 550,000l.

JULY 11. On Thurſday ſome diſpatches arrived from Copenhagen at St. James's, from the ſecretary left there by Sir Robert Murray Keith, to take care of the affairs of England in his abſence, which were immediately ſent to his Majeſty at Kew.

Some diſpatches of a very important nature, are preparing at the Secretary's Office for the Court of Copenhagen. It is ſaid they will be carried by a perſon of diſtinction, who is to demand an explicit anſwer within ten days after his arrival.

JULY 14. Convicts, we hear, will in future, inſtead of being ſent to America, be tranſported to the Eaſt, as a very proper ſupply to the military in that part, deſperation being a firſt rate requiſite in all fighting bodies.

Inſtead of wiſhing for additional connexions with the Continent, all good Engliſhmen are ſorry that we are ſo much connected with it. Hanover has coſt this nation above fifty millions; and as the electorate is generally attacked upon our account, it is to be wiſhed, for the good of both countries, that each was under the dominion of a different ſovereign.

Extract of a Letter from Coblentz, July 5.

"We have had repeated ſtorms of hail for two days paſt, which have deſtroyed all hopes of a plentiful harveſt in the Electorate of Treves. That which happened laſt was the moſt violent, and the hailſtones weighed from 4 to 11 ounces. The Bailiwick of Saarbruck which comprehends 38 villages is entirely ruined; the corn and the vineyards are deſtroyed, the birds were killed in the air, and the grain in the fields, and ſeveral houſes deſtroyed. In ſhort, the very earth and fruit-trees were waſhed away in ſome places; and the loſs upon the whole was computed at ſome hundred thouſand florins."

Yeſterday died at his houſe in Albemarle-Street, John Roberts, Eſq; Member in Parliament for Harwich, and of the Lords Commiſſioners of Trade.

JULY 16. The regiments deſigned for New-England, are to be accompanied with a fleet of tranſports loaded with proviſions, which is the cauſe of the embargo laid on in Ireland for three months.

By the moſt accurate obſervations, made within theſe few days on the beſt thermometers, the preſent weather has been four degrees of heat above what the climate has experianced ſince the year 1753.

JULY 18. The council to which ſo many members were yeſterday ſummoned, ſat, we hear, upon the affairs of America, and we hear it is determined to have a formidable fleet conſtantly cruiſing in the neighbourhood of all the maritime colonies.

Lord North's language at a late Privy-Council was, the neceſſity of ſupporting the authority of Great-Britain, at all events, in every part of the Britiſh dominions; and his Lordſhip aſked how any man could poſſibly call himſelf a friend to his country, who in the leaſt argued for rendering her ſupremacy a queſtion.

The noblemen and gentlemen at Almack's have offered a premium to the wits of the age, for the beſt and nobleſt inſcription, to be ſet up on General Wolfe's monument.

We are informed by an officer of high rank in the Imperial ſervice, now in London, that there are upwards of fifty Engliſh and Scotch gentlemen, officers in the Imperial army, beſides one field marſhal, four generals, ſix lieutenant-generals, eleven colonels, and upwards of two hundred and fifty inferior officers, that are natives of Ireland. A moſt alarming circumſtance, that their religion ſhould thus, by ſome deſect in our policy, exclude them from being employed at home, as it is impoſſible to determine but their ſwords may be too ſoon drawn againſt the very country that gave them being.

WAR-OFFICE, July 23. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint the following Captains to be Majors in the Army, viz. Captains James Webb, George T. Riddale, Allen M'Donald, George Nicholſon, William Steil, Chriſtopher French, John Cotrance, Roger Spendlove, Thomas Penberton, Joſeph French, Charles Boiſragon, Gavin Cochran, Michael Fleming, Edward Goodenough, Michael Nickſon, John St. Clair, John M'Donald, James Marſh, Thomas Hardcaſtle, Charles Edmonſtone, William Grant, Thomas Smith, William Edmonſtone, St. George Rowley, Charles Tuthill, Hugh Skeffington, Anthony Lovibond, David Home, James Burgevin, Andrew Edhouſe, Hugh Cameron, Noel and Lovecot, Thomas Carleton, Rawlins Hillaſton, Robert Deakin, Alexander F. Ogilvie, Patrick Campbell, Robert Gray, Thomas Musgrave, and Ronald M'Donald.

TO BE SOLD by private contract, by the ſubſcriber, and may be entered on immediately,

TWO valuable TRACTS of LAND, in St. James, Santee, pleaſantly ſituated on the ſea ſhore, oppoſite Cape Romain, and between 3 and 4 miles below the mouth of Santee river, which tracts contain 520 acres, large meaſure, 250 acres of which is exceeding good for rice, and may be made proper for indico or corn, about 150 acres of high land ſuitable for corn or indico, the remainder of the tracts are well ſupplied with ſawing timber, there is alſo a great quantity of oak wood on ſaid lands, and very convenient to a landing, of which there are three that large ſchooners may come up to. The ſituation of the lands are ſuch, that a canal may be continued from one already made, proceeding from the mill and running near three quarters of a mile, and may be carried to the farthest part of the lands without much trouble, which would be very neceſſary for conveying the timber down to the ſea ſhore, and turning a great quantity of water which would be of great ſervice to a mill.

ADDITION to the SOUTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE, and COUNTRY JOURNAL.

TUESDAY, October 13, 1772. No. 359. [Printed by Charles Crouch, in Elliott-ſtreet.]

LONDON, July 20.

WE are informed that it is intented ſoon to give the rank of Major-General of the Militia to all the preſent Colonels of Militia, who were embodied and marched out with their regiments during the laſt war, and to all other Colonels of Militia who have had that rank upwards of ten years; which is aſſigned as a reaſon why none of thoſe patriotic gentlemen were dignified with the military Order of the Bath at the late promotion.

Extract of a letter from Warſaw, July 27.

"We have juſt received here the following declaration, which the Emperor cauſed to be publiſhed on occaſion of his troops entering Poland.

Declaration of his Majeſty the Emperor, made on the occaſion of a body of his army entering Poland, given to the Officers or Dignitaries of the Diſtricts, repreſenting the Nation and Communities.

"His Imperial Majeſty, having reſolved in cauſing his troops to enter Poland, to take her under his protection, he has, in conſequence of his gracious diſpoſitions, judged proper to order me, Commandant General of his troops, to inform, and declare to the public, that none of the Citizens, of whatever ſtate or condition, muſt abſent or withdraw themſelves; but that every one ſhall remain quiet (as hitherto) in the exerciſe of his dignity, office, function, and profeſſion, and conform himſelf to the diſpoſitions that are to be immediately publiſhed, by which means all the inhabitants may hope to enjoy all the ſecurity and protection which the other ſubjects of his Imperial Majeſty enjoy in his Hereditary States: We therefore recommend, that this Ordinance of his Imperial Majeſty be notified in all the Cities, Towns, and Villages, and publiſhed to the inhabitants by thoſe who have juriſdiction, who muſt take care to put it in execution. If, on the contrary, any inhabitant of the country ſhould attempt to retire, and be afterwards met by the Imperial troops, he ſhall be compelled to return back to the place of his reſidence, and remain there.

Given at the General Head quarters, the 10th of June, 1772.

(Signed) HADDIK."

We are aſſured that the following ſingular circumſtance is an abſolute fact: About three weeks ago one James Palmer, ſervant to a Gentleman of fortune in Berkeley-Square, having ſet up late for his maſter, and neglected to let him in as ſoon as he ought to have done, the maſter being elevated with liquor, ſuddenly drew his ſword, and ſwore he would run him through the body for ſuffering him to wait ſo long, which ſo intimidated him that he fell into a fit, and on his recovery from it was conveyed to bed, where he continued in a languiſhing way for four or five days, when the hair of his head, by degrees, fell off, and afterwards that on his eye-brows, chin, and other parts.---This phenomenon was followed with the loſs of the nails of his hands and feet, which dropped off from the roots. The poor fellow was viſited by ſome of the moſt eminent of the faculty during his indiſpoſition, and within theſe few days has been able to make uſe of the cold bath; his nails appear to be growing again, but at preſent there is no likelihood of his hair being renewed; he is about 25 years of age, of a ſtrong athletic make, and never till the above accident had an hour's illneſs in his life.

The following Anecdote of Lord Clive, it is ſaid, may be depended upon. His Lordſhip is a ſomnambule, or walker in his ſleep, and one night ſtrolled into the enemy's camp, and had actually entered the tent of an officer before he awoke. In this dilemna, his preſence of mind, which has never been known to fail him, prompted him to demand the officer's ſword; who, thinking their camp ſurprized, ſuffered himſelf to be carried away priſoner.

July 21. A gentleman juſt arrived from Marſeilles informs, that two frigates of war and four xebecks are now fitting up there, by an order from Court, intended to tranſport a body of French troops to America.

Extract of a letter from Paris, July 9.

"I ſend this letter to you by a ſpecial courier, and immediately on his arrival I would have you cloſe my bear-account in India ſtock. I have written by the ſame channel a letter to my banker, giving him a commiſſion to buy me 20,000*l. India ſtock, and you may buy* 10,000 more on my account, but buy it only in ſingle thouſands, becauſe I would not have the market alarmed, by your offering to buy ſo large a ſum, all in one purchaſe. Take no notice to my banker of this commiſſion which I now ſend you unknown to him. The reaſon for my turning a bull in India I ſhall not keep ſecret from you. For you muſt know, that our Miniſtry, preſently after the Duke of Choiſeul's diſgrace, ſent orders to the iſland of Mauritius to recall five thouſand men, regular troops, doubly officered; and yeſterday our Court received the agreeable news of the ſafe arrival of part of theſe troops, and that the reſt would arrive here about the middle of Auguſt, our Court having received certain advices that the other troops from India, now bound for France, had arrived ſafe at the Cape of Good Hope. This intelligence, I underſtand, will be notified in due form to the chairman of the Engliſh Eaſt-India Company, by our ambaſſador at your Court. Therefore be as expeditious as poſſible in compleating my commiſſion. I have ſent my banker the ſame inſtructions relative to the 20,000*l. There is an Engliſh gentleman here, who got intelligence of this news early this morning, and he took a bett that was offered him of one thouſand guineas againſt one hundred, that your India would be* 250, on or before the 29*th of Auguſt next. A certain banker connected with our Miniſtry, has offered this Engliſh gentleman* 500 guineas down to ſtand his chance, but this offer was refuſed. For now it is the fault of your own Miniſtry, or your own Directors of the Eaſt-India Company, if they do not raiſe the price of that ſtock to three, or even to four hundred. There are no French troops now in India to give your Company the leaſt umbrage, ſo that there is now an entire end to all diſputes in that part of the world, between the French and Engliſh; and your Directors may make themſelves abſolute ſovereigns of that mighty Empire, without any check or controul; for as there are no European troops there to reſiſt them, they muſt remain the ſole and undiſturbed maſters of the whole Indoſtan, if they are minded. You may implicitly depend on it, that this intelligence is abſolutely authentic: And beſides this intelligence, I can of my own knowledge aſſure you, that all our country as well as our King, are now determined to have a peace at all events with Great-Britain. Theſe, my good friend, are the powerful reaſons that have thus induced me to quit my bear-account in India, and to commence as great a Bull, as the ſtrength of my capital will prudently ſuffer me to be."

Extract of a letter from Paris, July 12.

"Two noblemen of high rank have juſt been ſent to the Baſtile for having had ſeveral ſatirical books printed in their own houſes: Les Oeufs rouges, le Mandement de l'Archeveque, les Repreſentations au Roi, les Junius Francois, and the Maire du Palais, &c. &c. are among the number; and, it is ſaid, contain ſo many ſevere reflections on the King, his Miſtreſs, and his Miniſters, that it is thought it will go hard with the illuſtrious priſoners."

Extract of a letter from Peterſburgh, June 23.

"This day our Exchange was put into the greateſt conſternation, on account of a fire at Oſtiga, which conſumed 12 churches, and ſix ſhips loaded with corn, and almoſt the whole town; as the houſes were moſtly built of wood, there was no ſtopping the conflagration. Many magnificent buildings were likewiſe conſumed."

The ſtorm which aroſe at Bourdeaux, on account of the regiſtry of an edict for eſtabliſhing the Gabelles, has not yet ſubſided. The ſuperior Court perſiſts in the ſame ſentiments, and though this edict was regiſtered by the King's expreſs command, the Court, which performed it with all the cuſtomary reſtrictions, aſſembled immediately after the regiſtry, and proteſted againſt all that had been done, and Mr. Gaſcbe, the Firſt Preſident, was baniſhed.

July 23. In the London Evening Poſt is a long affidavit of Mr. Jacob Mendez Furtado, of Bury-ſtreet, St. Mary Axe, London, made by him before the Lord-Mayor on Tueſday laſt, relative to an unjuſt detainer and ſecret confinement of his nephew Mr. Joſhua Lara of Cornhill and his wife at Paris. It ſets forth, that on the 30th of laſt month, after Mr. and Mrs. Lara were retired to bed in that city, two men entered their apartment, ſeized the wife, and carried her to a different part of the houſe; the next day they reſtored her to her huſband, but enjoined them and the deponent, not to quit the city for fifteen days; at the expiration of which time they came again and made a demand of Mr. Lara and his wife, the former they carried to priſon, the latter to a nunnery. His utmoſt efforts to obtain their enlargement were in vain; he therefore has laid this his complaint before his Majeſty's Secretaries of State, requeſting the juſtice that is due to injured innocence.

To the honour of Lord Rochford, be it ſaid, that his Lordſhip has promiſed to obtain juſtice for this perſecuted young couple.

It is now well known upon the continent, that the Emperor of Germany, who is an ambitious young Prince, is anxious of adding Alſatia once more to his dominions. He is fearful alſo, leſt the Empreſs, as Queen of Hungary, ſhould cede any part of the Low Countries to the French King, which has long been in agitation. Theſe things have determined him, in his own mind, to wage war with France, whenever it ſhall pleaſe Providence to take away his mother, let that event happen as ſoon or as late as it may.

Lady Waldegrave, we are well aſſured, declines the viſits of her late ſuppoſed huſband, and ſeems determined, from the ſlight ſhe has lately met with, to diſſolve the connection.

Extract of a Letter from Conſtantinople, June 7.

"The Grand Seignior ſeems to be exceſſively glad he has obtained from the Ruſſians a ſuſpenſion of arms, as he may have an opportunity of turning them againſt his Mahometan enemies; he firſt begins with the Greeks, whom he has ordered to quit the city within ten days, on the forfeiture of all their effects, and to be made ſlaves for life: This ſevere edict was proclaimed the 4th inſtant, to the no ſmall aſtoniſhment of the inhabitants."

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, July 17.

"The laſt letters from Hamburgh, repreſent the King of Denmark's health to be daily growing worſe. He is obſerved to be in a ſtate of inſenſibility, and in general extremely abſent. In ſhort, it is thought by many people that his Majeſty will not live to be an old man.

"We are aſſured from good authority, that the execution of the plan for dividing Poland concerted between the courts of Vienna, Peterſburgh, and Berlin, is ſuſpended till after a peace is concluded between the Ruſſians and the Turks. In the mean time things are to remain in ſtatu quo; that is to ſay, the reſpective powers are to keep poſſeſſion of the places they have taken."

An opinion prevails that a certain German prince, well known for his great military talents, has been lately at our court, to propoſe a very extraordinary alliance between this kingdom and an enterpriſing potentate of the North.

It is computed that the preſent miniſtry, ſince the commencement of their adminiſtration, have ſuffered more inſults from their neighbours, and ſuffered them to go unpuniſhed, than England experienced in the laſt hundred years before they aſſumed the reigns of government.

Letters from Warſaw mention, that a Pruſſian army of fifty thouſand men is now ſettled and encamped in the very heart of Poland; among which are fourteen regiments of cavalry.

All the officers belonging to his Majeſty's garriſons of Gibraltar and Minorca, who are on furlow, have received orders to join their reſpective corps by the end of next month.

Orders are ſent to the victualling office for getting ready ſeveral thouſand tons of ſalt proviſions for exportation to our garriſons abroad.

The King of Pruſſia has ſent letters to all the princes of the empire, concerning the preſent ſtate of Poland, and among the reſt to our Sovereign as elector of Hanover, which was the occaſion of ſending off two meſſengers on Sunday to Berlin and Hanover.

We are informed that Lord Temple has declared he will never have any ſhare in the adminiſtration of affairs in this kingdom.

Orders are given for taking off the duty from rice imported into this kingdom from America only, after Michaelmas day next.

We hear Lord North intends bringing in a bill next ſeſſions for the relief of inſolvent crown debtors.

This morning the convicts, to the number of near ſeventy, among whom was the noted Dudley, were carried from Newgate, and put on board the Tender, at Blackfriars bridge, in order to be ſhipped for America.

July 25. Orders are, we hear, ſent to General Gage, to have the troops on the American ſervice immediately reviewed; a buſineſs which, though eſſentially neceſſary to good diſcipline, has been neglected for a conſiderable time, to the unſpeakable pleaſure of the Boſtonians, who now think a military force only a formal appendage of government.

Orders have been given for building two forts near the mouth of the river Miſſiſippi.

It is ſaid that Lord North has lately made frequent viſits to the Earl of Chatham.

Extract of a Letter from Madrid, June 21.

"An ordinance is juſt publiſhed here, which prohibits the bringing in cotton velvets, and all ſtuffs in general that have cotton in them, into any of the King's dominions in Spain and the Indies. The merchants are allowed three months to diſpoſe of the goods of this kind they have by them; and after the expiration of twenty months, the wear of thoſe ſtuffs is prohibited entirely under very ſevere penalties."

Extract of a Letter from an Aſiatic Merchant at Bengal, to another of the ſame country, now reſiding at London.

"Such extraordinary duties are laid on every thing that the manufactories muſt be ruined. Millions of people died here laſt year for want. The cloths uſed for package, &c. that ſold from five to ſeven, have been raiſed to forty rupees per hundred pieces. The company's ſervants have made a monopoly of them, as they likewiſe have of bamboos, chetoys, cheeſe, rice, corn, brandy, ſalt, and even the ſtuff brooms are made of; by means of heavy duties thereon, impoſed on all other dealers. There is no inhabiting this country any longer."

July 27. The news from Mauritius of the miſerable condition of the French troops in that iſland is confirmed, with this additional circumſtance, that nearly one half of them periſhed by ſickneſs and famine, and that being, by the hand of Providence, rendered incapable of carrying the ſtroke they had meditated into execution, thoſe who had eſcaped the mortality are ordered home. Their whole number is ſaid to have been 8000 choice troops, and their deſtination is ſaid to have been againſt our company's acquiſitions in Bengal.

The affidavit of Mr. Furtado will not appear ſo ſurpriſing, when the public are informed that Miſs Sarah Ximenes, now the ſuppoſed wife of Mr. Joſhua Lara, is the daughter of Mr. Ximenes, merchant in this city, and had a conſiderable fortune left her in ready money by her uncle Gabriel Lopez, deceaſed; that when ſhe went off for France with Mr. Lara, her father purſued them the ſame day, and, no doubt, made intereſt with the French Miniſtry to have them taken into cuſtody, and ſeparated, perhaps, till the validity of the marriage is enquired into.

July 28. By the laſt accounts from Hamburgh, we learn, that ſome merchants of conſiderable property from Dantzick, are lately arrived in that city with their moſt valuable effects, not chuſing any longer to truſt their property in the power of his Pruſſian Majeſty.

Letters from Peterſburgh mention, that the Empreſs has given orders for repairing all the men of war, and likewiſe for building ſix new ſhips of the line at Archangel.

General Paoli is to have the grant of a conſiderable track of land on the Ohio, whether he intends to carry a colony of Corſicans.

Private letters from Copenhagen ſay, that every day affords freſh troubles to the ſtate, that the many changes in the miniſtry cauſe murmurs and complaints all over the kingdom; that the cruelties that have been exerciſed on ſome of the firſt nobility, by order of the Queen Dowager and her party, makes the King deſpiſed by all ranks of people; that Prince Frederick is ſeldom ſeen in public; that he and his mother intended to have ſpent ſome few weeks at Brunſwick, but were afraid to leave Copenhagen, leſt advantage ſhould be taken of their abſence, to reſtore the King to the ſame power of managing ſtate affairs as he had before the troubles in that kingdom began.

Advice has been received at the Hague, that a French man of war had ſunk a Dutch Eaſt-Indiaman near the iſland of Ceylon in the Eaſt-Indies.

By a perſon juſt arrived from Gibraltar, we are informed, that all kinds of proviſions are in great plenty in that garriſon. The ſupplies from Barbary and Spain being regulated on an entire new footing.

Advice is received from Newfoundland, that ſince Commodore Shuldham is arrived with the ſhips under his command, the French have kept within their proper bounds, and have not attempted to make any ſort of encroachments upon the fiſhery, ſo that every thing is conducted with great regularity.

The ſpirit of oppoſition is re-kindling with great vehemence in Ireland. Even at this time intereſt is making for the general election, and many who have not a ſeeming twelvemonth to live, are canvaſſing with as much warmth as if they were certain of half a century.

We hear that a noble Earl has formed a plan for ſettling a new adminiſtration on ſuch a footing as will be unexceptionable to the public.

July 29. His Majeſty's ſhips the Quebec, Bonetta, and Tryall, are ſailed from Portſmouth for Woolwich, to be paid off.

Among all the ſurnames we have met with, we do not remember ſo uncommon a one as in the following advertiſement in the Canterbury Journal. It is as follows: "Mary Scaredevil, widow of the late William Scaredevil, of Maidſtone, does, by the aſſiſtance of the Almighty, intend to carry on the buſineſs of white-ſmith, and hopes for the favours and recommendations of the gentlemen and ladies whom the late William Scaredevil had the pleaſure to ſerve, which will be gratefully acknowledged by their moſt humble ſervant, MARY SCAREDEVIL."

July 30. A gentleman has communicated to us the following remarkable expreſſion which was ſaid by his Majeſty to Lord North, a little before the riſing of the ſeſſion of parliament. It was juſt before the opening of the levee at St. James's, when his Majeſty with Lord North and three other noblemen were in a private room. The converſation turning upon the then favourable proſpect of peace, his Majeſty, taking Lord North by the hand, ſaid, "While you, my Lord, can ſecure peace to my dominions, you ſhall be firſt Miniſter in England."

The Duc d'Aiguillon and the Chancellor of France, who at preſent manage the affairs of that kingdom, ſeem to have adopted the peaceful ſyſtem of Cardinal de Fleury in reſpect to Great-Britain. One of the principal cauſes of the late Miniſter Choiſeul's diſgrace, was the endeavouring to interrupt the peace of Europe, contrary to his maſter's ſyſtem and private inclination. The enemies, and the ſucceſſors to the power of that miniſter, have now in their poſſeſſion undoubted proofs of this fact, which muſt ever operate to prevent his recall from baniſhment. The ſums expended by France in warlike preparations, with a view to the Eaſt-Indies, where Choiſeul meant to have made the firſt impreſſion, amount to a ſum almoſt incredible: So great, indeed, that the treaſury of France have lately, from inability, refuſed payment of bills drawn from their ſettlements beyond the Cape. The whole ſyſtem, therefore, reſpecting the re-eſtabliſhment of the French Eaſt-India trade, by the influence of a reſpectable military force, either at Mauritius, Madagaſcar, or Pondicherry, is, for the preſent at leaſt, entirely laid aſide, and the French King's troops have in conſequence been recalled.

July 31. It is reported that the office of ſecretary of ſtate for Scotland, which has lain dormant upwards of thirty years, will ſoon be revived. The late Marquis of Tweeddale was the laſt ſecretary.

Laſt night a cabinet council was held at Lord Rochford's office in Cleveland Row, at which the Lord Chancellor, and all the great officers of ſtate aſſiſted, and was not up till near twelve o'clock. The Earl of Suffolk was ſent for to town to aſſiſt at this council.

This day there was a full Board of Admiralty, at which ſeveral officers appeared upon buſineſs of the greateſt importance, ſuch as the ſtate of the dock yards, and ſeveral ſhips in different ports.

The Friendſhip, Carter, from Georgia, for Bremen, ran aſhore near the Elbe, and after throwing overboard alſo barrels of rice, and the loſs of two cables and anchors, got off.

AUGUST 2. We learn from Calais, that two large French ships were seized on the 2d of this month in the harbour, having contraband goods on board, and three more that were suspected of the same, slipped their cables, and ran out to sea.

On Friday last was married, at Newington church, Mr. Elisha Poinsett, of South-Carolina, Surgeon, to Miss Ann Roberts, only daughter of Mr. William Roberts, Merchant.

We hear that there will be no new government on the Mississippi, but that the Governor of West Florida's residence will be removed from Pensacola to Manchack, or Fort-Bute, a most convenient spot on the river for the purpose of trade; and it is said Governor Chester has written home soliciting such a removal.

Governor Wright, of Georgia, we hear, has resigned that employment, and is to be succeeded by Governor Shirley, of the Bahamas, who will be succeeded by some Gentleman sent out from the mother country.

Letters from Berlin, say, "Our King is very busy in causing all the towns of any importance in Polish Prussia to be well garrisoned and strongly fortified. A great number of cannon, and quantities of military stores, are daily sending from this place into the new country."

A great change in the upper departments of the law, in Ireland, is, we hear, in agitation, and will shortly take place.

Orders are issued for draughting off a regiment of marines to be embarked for Canada.

Letters received at Amsterdam from the Cape of Good Hope, advise, that the Heure de Berget, a French ship, commanded by the Chevalier de St. Felix, arrived the 16th of April in the Bay of Cape Faux. The above ship left the island of Mauritius the 14th of March last, and brought the melancholy news, that on the 29th of February they had a violent hurricane at the isles of Mauritius and Bourbon, which continued fifteen days; that all the shipping then in the port of St. Mauritius were driven on shore on the sand-banks, and several went to pieces; that many houses were blown down, and all the produce of the earth destroyed, so that there was no hope of any harvest; and that, besides this calamity, the small-pox had raged with such violence for some time past at Mauritius, that about four thousand persons, mostly slaves, had died of that distemper.

List of his Majesty's ships of the line in commission: Barfleur 90, Ocean 90, St. Albans 64, Asia 64, Princess Amelia 80, Albion 74, Boyne 64, Buckingham 74, Captain 64, Centaur 74, Defence 64, Egmont 70, Fame 74, Kent 74, Intrepid 64, Lenox 74, Marlborough 74, Medway 64, Northumberland 70, Orford 70, Royal Oak 90, Prudent 64, Panther 64, Raisonnable 74, Resolution 74, Somerset 74, Terrible 74, Torbay 74, Trident 64, Triumph 74, Achilles 60, Chatham 50, Montagu 60, Portland 50, Worcester 60, and Warwick 50.

AUGUST 3. The master of a vessel from Havre de Grace, declared on Friday last at the Custom-House, that eight sail of the line, four frigates, and several transports, were lying in the harbour of Rochfort, ready to sail on the shortest notice.

AUGUST 4. It is with pleasure the lovers of their country observe his Majesty's prudent determination not to squander the blood or treasure of his people in fruitless contentions with the Continent. When the Northern powers have exhausted themselves in a quarrel about Poland, England may then step in as a powerful Mediatrix, and dictate such conditions to the belligerant powers as seem most consistent with the dictates of her justice, or the feelings of her humanity.

AUGUST 5. A rupture between the Spaniards and Dutch is looked on as inevitable, unless the former should make considerable concessions for their late behaviour in the West Indies, which is at this juncture next to impossible. Monday the insurance premium of shipping goods in Dutch bottoms, bore an advance of near seven per cent.

The Superb man of war, of seventy-four guns, at Portsmouth, is designed for a flag ship for the Rear Admiral Lord Viscount Howe.

Yesterday a respite until the 11th instant, was sent from the Secretary of State's office to Newgate for Captain Jones, in consequence of a petition presented in his favour.

AUGUST 6. Yesterday his Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester set off with a grand retinue for the German Spa.

Lord Townshend, it is now declared, stays certainly in Ireland till the next meeting of the Parliament in that kingdom.

The Ministry are doing what they can to keep Lord Hillsborough in office, but his Lordship determines not to assist in measures which he cannot approve; and as his present employment would throw the entire execution of these measures upon him, he declares that if they are finally resolved upon, he must prefer the approbation of his own heart to the most profitable connexion with the Government.

Among the various great men who on the unsettled resignation of Lord Hillsborough are talked of to succeed him as American Secretary of State, is Lord Besborough, and there is something probable in the mention of this Nobleman, because being married into the Devonshire family, the Cavendishes may by that means gradually slide into the measures of the Ministry; and his Lordship's brother also, Mr. Ponsonby, the late Speaker of the Commons, who heads a large party in Ireland, be induced to sacrifice the warmth of his resentments to the views of his emolument.

Previous to Lord Hillsborough's resignation, if after all he should resign, a considerable change will be made in the American governments. Lord Charles-Greville-Montagu, it is said, resigns South-Carolina; Governor Wright gives up Georgia; Governor Grant gives up East Florida; and Governor Shirley will be removed from the Bahamas. Reports of this kind occasioned crowded rooms at the Plantation office, and make Lord Hillsborough's political exit productive of many difficulties.

AUGUST 8. On Wednesday last the affair of Mr. Morris, who went abroad with his ward, the illegitimate daughter of the late Lord Baltimore, was taken into consideration by the Lord Chancellor, at Lincoln's-Inn-Hall, when his Lordship was pleased to set him aside from his guardianship, and to order him to stand committed. Several letters both from the gentleman and his juvenile fpouse were read, and his Lordship declared from the Bench, that he himself had received a letter from Mr. Morris, warning him to be cautious how he proceeded in the matter. Messrs. Wilkes and Glynn have also received letters desiring them to call upon the Ministry to look upon the imprisonment of Mr. Morris's person at Lisle as an infringement of the laws of nations, and consequently an insult to the British crown, which should either be revenged, or properly atoned for by the releasing honourable or governable.

The late Sir John Peyton, Bart. is succeeded in the title by Thornton Peyton, Esq. late a Captain in the 5th regiment of foot.

WARSAW, July 22. A courier from Count Romanzow is arrived here, and hath brought the Russian Ambassador the news, that all the Ministers-Plenipotentiary, as well of the belligerent as mediating powers, were arrived at Fockzani on the 15th of this month, and that the first conferences were appointed to be holden there the day before yesterday. These advices add, that from the seeming good disposition of the Turks, it was hoped the negociation of peace would be attended with success. The Turks wanted the Ministers to assemble under their tents, but it has been decided that the conferences shall be holden in a wooden building, which the Count d'Orlow hath erected for that purpose. General Hadick is advanced within nine miles of Leopold.

Receipt for making the Powder of Fumigation, to prevent the Infection of the Plague, invented by the Commission at Moscow, in the Year 1771.

THE commission at Moscow having in the last year invented a fumigation-powder, which, from several lesser experiments, had proved efficacious in preventing the infection of the plague; in order more fully to ascertain its virtue in that respect, it was determined, towards the end of the year, that ten malefactors, under sentence of death, should, without undergoing any other precautions than the fumigations, be confined three weeks in a lazarette, be laid upon the beds, and dressed in the cloaths, which had been used by persons sick, dying, and even dead, of the plague, in the hospital. The experiment was accordingly tried, and none of the ten malefactors were then infected, or have been since ill. The fumigation-powder is prepared as follows:

Powder of the first strength.

Take leaves of juniper, juniper-berries pounded, ears of wheat, guaiacum-wood pounded, of each six pounds; common saltpetre pounded, eight pounds; sulphur pounded, six pounds; Smyrna tar, or myrrh, two pounds; mix all the above ingredients together, which will produce a pood of the powder of fumigation of the first strength.

N. B. A pood is forty pounds Russian, which are equal to thirty-five pounds and a half, or thirty-six pounds English averdupois.

Powder of the second strength.

Take southernwood cut into small pieces, five pounds; leaves of juniper cut into small pieces, four pounds; juniper berries pounded, three pounds; common saltpetre pounded, four pounds; sulphur pounded, two pounds and a half; Smyrna tar, or myrrh, one pound and a half; mix the above together, which will produce half a pood of the powder of fumigation of the second strength.

Odoriferous Powder.

Take the root called kalmius cut into small pieces, three pounds; frankincense pounded grosly, one pound; storax pounded, and rose-flowers, half a pound; yellow amber pounded, one pound; Smyrna tar, or myrrh, one pound; common saltpetre pounded, one pound and a half; sulphur, a quarter of a pound; mix all the above together, which will produce nine pounds and three quarters of the odoriferous powder.

Remark on the powder of fumigation.

If guaiacum cannot be had, the cones of pines or firs may be used in its stead; likewise the common tar of pines and firs may be used instead of the Smyrna tar, or myrrh, and mugwort may supply the place of southernwood.

SEVERAL Chimnies having taken Fire since the late cool Weather set in, the FIRE MASTERS are sorry there should be so much Reason to censure the Inhabitants of this Town, for their shameful Inattention in a Matter which so greatly concerns the Properties, and it may be, the Lives of the People here.---- It is therefore hoped, that all Landlords as well as Masters of Families, shall immediately have their Chimnies well cleaned of Soot, and take Care that they be carefully swept, once every Fortnight or three Weeks at farthest; for no Excuse will be accepted in Abatement of the Penalty which the Law has imposed against Defaulters in this Way. Moreover, it is expected, and will be insisted on, that all those Chimnies, the Vents of which are so narrow, as not to admit a Sweeper, should be pulled down and properly rebuilt. Were People to consider, how little Engines can avail in Case a Fire should happen when the Wind is high, they certainly would be careful to prevent Accidents of this Sort, as far as might be in their Power; for even allowing they had little or no Property of their own to loose, yet the Duty they owe to their Neighbour, and the Community in general, ought to induce them to guard against such distressing Casualties, whereby Numbers might be involved in Ruin.---- Further, Joiners, House Carpenters, Cabinet Makers, and others who work in Wood, are hereby cautioned to clear their Shops of Shavings every Evening, and not to allow any Person to work either by Fire or Candle-Light, after Dark; for this Town has been often endangered by these Means, and almost one Half of it was consumed even in the Middle of the Day, within our own Memory, by making a Fire too near Shavings and other very combustible Materials.
